DAY 3~FRIDAY~JULY 28
ROME
Board your motor coach for a half day tour of “must see” sights. Start with the Fontana di Trevi, (the Trevi Fountain,) the largest Baroque fountain in the city. The fountain is a magnificent testament to the extraordinary masterpiece of Italian art. Your tour also includes the Spanish Steps which are at the eastern end of the old city center. From the base of the stairs is a maze of narrow lanes full of inviting designer shops. Explore on your own in the afternoon then enjoy dinner with fellow travelers this evening.

DAY 4~SATURDAY~JULY 29
ROME
Enjoy a full day tour of the city built by Romulus and Remus. You will spend the first part of your day viewing the works of Michelangelo on display at the Sistine Chapel in Vatican City. The Sistine Chapel, draws tourists from near and far to view the ceiling’s various painted elements which include The Last Judgment on the sanctuary wall and wall paintings by several painters of the 15th century including Sandro Botticelli, Domenico Ghirlandaio and Pietro Perugino.

Enjoy local fare for lunch before you proceed to the Palatine Hill, the location where the first settlers built their huts, under the direction of Romulus. In later years, the Hill became a residential district attracting the nobility. Continue on to the Roman Forum, the center of political and social activity, Rome’s marketplace as well as the business district and civic center. Ending at the Colosseum, you will be stepping back in time to about 80 A.D. The Colosseum was built as an amphitheater for entertainment of masses in barbaric and brutal games. Some were people fighting animals to the death or beast on beast combat, but the most popular was the human on human combat. The Gladiators were slaves, often those captured during war, trained in special schools to fight each other to the death. The gladiatorial games ended in 438 A.D. This impressively large structure contains 80 arches, is roughly 600 feet long by 500 feet wide, covers 6 acres and was able to hold up to 55,000 spectators. It is now visited by more than 4 million visitors a year making it the 39th most popular attraction in the entire world.

DAY 5~SUNDAY~JULY 30
SULMONA/MAJELLA NATIONAL PARK
Leave Rome behind and travel east to the province of L’Aquila and the town of Sulmona, the birthplace of Ovid and the portal to Majella National Park. Sulmona, often called ‘the prettiest city in Abruzzo’ takes first-time visitors by surprise for its beauty and harmony are breathtaking. Named for the imposing mountain group that dominates the landscape, Montagna della Majella, the park is a majestic collection of massifs, karst plains, and lush flower-filled valleys. Visit the medieval cliff-side hermitage of Saint Onofrio, Lama dei Pligni Botanical Park, and the red deer wildlife park while here.

Due to the destructive action of mankind over the centuries, several large herbivores in the area have become extinct and an alarming number of wildlife were becoming rare species. But over the last few years, thanks to the combined efforts of the government, WWF and the locals, the animal population in the national park has changed significantly. Roe and red deer can now be seen in the clearings and the Abruzzi chamois can be found living on the high meadows of the area. Brown bears and Apennine wolves exist here, although difficult to see, as well as otters living along the rivers. You may catch the adorable site of otters holding hands while they snooze so they don’t float away from each other.
Your modern hotel is located near the main square in Sulmona. Featuring pastel tones, all rooms have flat screen television with satellite channels, free wireless Internet access, mini bar and air conditioning. Pamper yourself at the Narcissus spa for the well-being of your mind and your body. The spa includes sauna, Turkish bath, chromotherapy showers, a swimming pool with hot tub, and a relaxation corner with infusions and tea. The “Ovidius Restaurant” serves local cuisine, as well as a vast range of international dishes.

Here you will be able to view the most extensive concentration of different habitats: from the woodlands to hot southern valleys and rocky coast. DAYS 8/9~WEDNESDAY/THURSDAY~AUGUST 2/3
ALBEROBELLO/OSTUNI

In the province of Puglia lies perhaps one of the most idiosyncratic towns in Italy, Alberobello, known for its whitewashed conical roofed houses called trulli. Built of limestone and erected without mortar, archeological records suggest that the practice started in the Bronze Age, however, legend has it that they were so built to avoid being taxed as a “permanent” dwelling by the Kingdom of Naples. Whatever their origin, these gnome-like structures are truly charming and form an important element of this UNESCO World Heritage site.

Continue your discovery of the area the next morning when you enter the cathedral-like expanses of the Castellana Grotto, one of the most important attractions in Puglia. Enjoy a unique tour of the caves to nearly 200 feet deep in an amazing scenario made of stalactites, stalagmites, concretions, incredible shapes, fossils and canyons.

Afterward, head to Ostuni, “the white city,” another UNESCO World Heritage Site. The geography of Ostuni is incredible. The landscape is a unique pallet of red earth with silvery olive trees topped with green, while the city lies beneath an azure sky. The ancient heart is a maze of corridors and stairs, twisting up to a pinnacle with views for miles.

Your hotel occupies a collection of historic stone cottages with whitewashed walls and pointed roofs. The rural suites have sitting areas, free Wi-Fi, mini fridges and flat-screen TVs. One and two bedroom apartments have living rooms and kitchens. The stone and wrought iron beds will provide comfort while at the same time making you feel as though you have truly stepped into an Italian setting. Other hotel amenities include a spa and bike rentals.

Overnights at the TIPICO RESORT. (B,L;B,D)
DAY 10—FRIDAY—AUGUST 4
MATERA/SALERNO
Today you begin your drive westward toward Naples and to the UNESCO World Heritage site of Matera where you will discover what are thought to be the oldest dwellings in Italy. The ancient Sassi di Matera (stones of Matera) is the location of prehistoric cave dwellings hewn from the calcareous rock that lines a riverine gorge. This rudimentary way of living continued on with little improvement until the 1950s when the Italian government moved much of the population to the more modern section of the city. What remains is a fascinating subterranean city that will leave you speechless.

Continue on to Salerno late this afternoon. Salerno is located at the geographical center of a triangle nicknamed “Tourist Triangle of the 3 P” (namely a triangle with the corners in Pompeii, Paestum and Positano). This peculiarity gives Salerno special tourist characteristics that are increased by the many local points of tourist interest.

Your contemporary hotel is conveniently located just seven miles from the medieval Castle of Arechi and a 10-minute walk from the Marina of Arechi. The expansive and airy rooms come with complimentary Wi-Fi and minibars and provide modern amenities you can enjoy. All rooms have flat-screen TVs, pull-out sofas, and a coffee/tea maker. The hotel also has an outdoor pool, an exercise room, and a restaurant with terrace seating and a bar. Overnight at HOTEL NOVOTEL SALERNO. (B)

DAY 11—SATURDAY—AUGUST 5
NAPLES—MOUNT VESUVIUS

A full day visit to Naples will have you venturing to the summit of the infamous Mount Vesuvius best known for its eruption in 79 CE, which destroyed Pompeii and Herculaneum. The barren smoldering moonscape of the summit provides an “extraterrestrial” view of Naples and the bay beyond. The irony of Vesuvius is on full display at the National Museum of Archeology in Naples. Although the pyroclastic clouds of ash and heat destroyed structures, they helped to preserve irreplaceable works of art ranging from statuary to intricate mosaics.

Set along the Amalfi coast, your hotel offers sophisticated, colorful rooms with free Wi-Fi and flat-screen TV, as well as balconies with views of the sea, the breathtaking Mediterranean tropics, and all-encompassing famous views of the area. Each room is decorated with distinguishing marks and the sun beds and panoramic bathrooms will provide exactly the comfort and luxury you need. Included are tennis courts, a gym, and spa with massage services. Overnight at HOTEL SAN PIETRO. (B) http://www.sanpietrohotel.it/.
DAY 12–SUNDAY–AUGUST 6
NAPLES
Today finds you traversing the Spaccanapoli, Naples splitter as the locals call it, one of three ancient east-west oriented Roman roads that formed the grid of ancient Naples. Visit the Cathedral of Saint Jennaurius, the seat of Archbishop of Naples, named for the city’s patron saint. The faithful gather three times a year at the Cathedral to witness the liquefaction of what is claimed to be his blood kept in a sealed glass container to honor him. Praised for being a martyr, and true saint of the church, he died during the Great Persecution.

In the evening a cooking experience at a local culinary school is your treat for your farewell dinner.

DAY 3~TUESDAY~JULY 25
ELBA
To see even more of Italy start your trip a few days early by visiting the most ecologically diverse islands of Italy, the Tuscan Archipelago. Your trip begins as you take a ferry from Piombino and cross the Tyrrhenian Sea to arrive in Elba, the third largest island in Italy and one of the most protected areas in Europe. This island in Tuscany is home to approximately 30,000 people, mountainous areas that host varieties of flora and fauna, and flat areas that are surrounded by sparkling blue waters.

On May 4, 1814, Napoleon Bonaparte, emperor of France and one of the greatest military leaders in history, abdicated the throne and in the Treaty of Fontainebleau, was banished to the Mediterranean island of Elba. During his brief stay, he carried out a series of economic and social reforms to improve the quality of life, partly to pass the time and partly out of a genuine concern for the well-being of the islanders. Napoleon stayed on Elba for 300 days. He returned to France on February 26, 1815 for the Hundred Days. In June 1815, he was defeated at the bloody Battle of Waterloo and he was exiled to the remote island of Saint Helena, in the southern Atlantic Ocean, where he lived out the rest of his days.
Schedules, accommodations and prices are accurate at the time of writing. They are subject to change.

Your home for the next two nights, Hotel Airone, is set in a tranquil area along the north coast of Elba. All of its 85 rooms are comfortable, with a private terrace, often with an amazing view of Portoferraio, decorated in a Mediterranean style and equipped with all the modern amenities, including air condition, TV, telephone, free Wi-Fi, minibar, safe, and hair dryer. Other amenities include a piano bar and a restaurant with patio seating. There's also an outdoor saltwater pool, a Jacuzzi and a private dock, plus beach access via the hotel's taxi boat. Massage services and a steam bath are also available. Last but not least just few hundred feet away from the hotel there is the Terme San Giovanni facility, famous for the silt (sea mud) with highly therapeutic and unique properties. Overnight at the HOTEL AIRONE (B,D) http://www.hotelairone.info/en/.

DAY 4~WEDNESDAY~JULY 26
TUSCAN ARCHIPELAGO NATIONAL PARK
The Arcipelago Toscano (Tuscan Archipelago) is comprised of seven islands; Elba, Giglio, Capraia, Montecristo, Pianosa, Giannutri, and Gorgona. Explore these islands and pay close attention to the variety of the coasts, the bottom of the sea, the rocky cliffs, and try and find the vegetation and animal species that live in the fascinating natural environment. The islands in this Archipelago are different than most other islands you have visited or know about. Capraia is a volcanic island while Giglio and Elba are granitic islands. This stretch of seven islands is the first great marine park and is characterized by various habitats, home to some of the most interesting, colorful and special wildlife and plant life you could imagine. Float past fishing villages that cling to the steep cliff sides as you breathe in the refreshing, crisp air and take it all in.
Overnight at the HOTEL AIRONE (B, Packed L,D)

DAY 5~THURSDAY~JULY 27
ELBA/ROME
Be sure to embrace the beauty of the island on your last day before taking the ferry from Portoferraio to Piombino for your transfer to Rome where you will meet with the rest of group arriving today and continue on the main trip. (B)
OPTIONAL POST-EXTENSION TO CAPRI AND AMALFI COAST

DAY 13~MONDAY~AUGUST 7

NAPLES/POMPEI

This morning bid farewell to the rest of the group returning to the USA and extend your Italian journey of discovery starting with your visit to Pompeii, an archaeological site that was nearly demolished when Mount Vesuvius erupted in 79 A.D. The volcano buried the city in thick volcanic dust, killing 2,000 people and forcing the city to be abandoned for nearly 2,000 years until it was rediscovered in 1748. Underneath the debris and dust they found that Pompeii was still mostly intact with its buildings, artifacts and unfortunately skeletons. Since then the city has provided an incredible view into the ancient world to tourists each year.

On your tour through Pompeii you will visit the amphitheater, Gymnasium, House of the Faun, Temple of Apollo, Theater, Via Dei Sepolcri, House of the ancient Hunt, Basilica, Forum Granary, Baths, and House of Tragic Poet. You will learn the history of these places and get a first-hand view of this ancient world with incredible stories and pasts. Enjoy lunch (on your own) before continuing on to see the Villa of Papyri, House of the Deer, Samnite House, House of the Beautiful courtyard and college of the Augstales.

Overnight at HOTEL SAN PIETRO. (B,D)

DAY 14~TUESDAY~AUGUST 8

NAPLES/SORRENTO/CAPRI

Today will be a full day excursion of Capri, known in Greek mythology as the isle of sirens, a favored resort of the Roman emperors, located on the Tyrhenian Sea off the Sorrentine Peninsula, on the south side of the Gulf of Naples. Visit Blue Grotto, a beautiful cave at the water’s edge with a small opening to the sea that opens and closes with the tide of the ocean. This sea cave allows sunlight to pass through an underwater cavity which creates a blue reflection that illuminates the cavern. The cliff is about 460 feet deep with a sandy bottom and is truly an impressive and gorgeous site.

Overnight at HOTEL SAN PIETRO. (B,D)
DAY 15~WEDNESDAY~AUGUST 9
NAPLES~AMALFI

You will also visit the charming jewel Amalfi has to offer, a natural reserve known as “Valle Delle Ferriere.” Take a walk through the slopes and valleys of the trail that offers magnificent views of the rich environment which hosts waterfalls, streams, wildlife, plants and trees, and the idyllic site of the Amalfi coast.

Dear Traveler,

In an effort to help protect our planet, Classic Escapes has begun the transition of becoming paperless. We need your help getting there!

Did you know?

Recycling one ton of paper saves 20 trees, 7,000 gallons of water, three cubic yards of landfill space, 60 pounds of air pollutants, and saves enough energy to power the average home for six months…

Please indicate in the chart below whether or not you prefer to receive paperless correspondence from us – all you need to do is put a check under the “green” symbol for yes or a check under the “NO” for no.

Simply fax or email your responses to reservations@classicescapes.com!
